Subject: CCW Permit Question

Hi Ms. Altig,

Nevada has updated our list to show that we only recognizes the enhanced permits for Idaho. It was brought to my attention after Mike Jensen sent you the letter that your enhanced permits are the only permits that requires training. This is one of the requirements that Nevada has. I have attached an updated list that is currently on our website. Every year I research each state and determine who we can recognized. If something is brought to our attention or additional information is received we will update our list throughout the year. Please check our website at <http://gsd.nv.gov> for the most current list. Thank you.
